Qualifying Performance

A dog must pass all of the exercises in a class at one Draft Test to qualify and earn a draft title.

Draft Test Exercise

Section 1 Basic Control

Overview: Prior to hitching, the dog demonstrates an ability to respond to commands from the handler. The dog is expected to heel and to come when called.

Section 2 Harness and Hitch

Overview: The dog demonstrates willingness to be harnessed and hitched to the draft rig.

Section 3 Practical Draft Work

Overview: The team demonstrates working ability. The team encounters situations and distractions as might be met under everyday conditions.

Basic Commands: Normal, Slow, Halt, Back

Control with Distractions: Auditory, Visual

Loading and Unloading

Maneuvering: Circular patterns to left and right, 90 degree turns to left and right, maneuvering through narrow area, and removable obstacle

Section 4 Group Stay

Overview: The dogs demonstrate their ability to remain on a stay while hitched. This is a group exercise.

Section 5 Distance Freight haul

Overview: The teams traverse an outdoor course with dogs hauling loaded draft rigs. This is a group exercise.

Thank You!

To all dedicated individuals,
